

LOUIS C. McCONAUGHY FUND

2026 INSTRUCTIONS FOR ORGANIZATION GRANT APPLICATIONS

Please read these instructions carefully.

The Louis C. McConaughy Fund makes grants available to organizations dedicated to educational and other charitable causes. The Committee is most interested in helping support educational initiatives that directly impact students and the local community.

Organizations wishing to apply are asked to observe the following:

- make sure you're using the current version of the application form (applications using previous versions will not be considered);
- along with a completed application, please submit a detailed budget explaining how you anticipate using any grant you receive from the McConaughy Fund;
- all application materials must be received by Trinity Episcopal Church no later than July 1, 2026; applications postmarked on this date will be accepted, but late or incomplete applications will not be considered.

If you have any questions, please email office@trinityepiscopal.church

Responses to all applications will be sent by August 1, 2026. The Committee reserves the right to publicize information regarding grants awarded by the Fund, including the names of grant recipients and the amount of any grant they receive from the Fund.

The Louis C. McConaughy Fund participates in All Aboard Atchison Match Day. Organizations supported by All Aboard Atchison Match Day will be awarded their Louis C. McConaughy Grant funds, along with their matching funds, at the time of distribution by All Aboard Atchison Match Day.
